FROM WASHINGTON.

The Constitutional Suffrage Amendment unable to Pass---Radicals Deem it too Favorable to the South---Right of Negro Suffrage by Law---The District of Columbia Bill---Complaints from the South.

[Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun.]

WASHINGTON, January 29.—It is well ascertained that the constitutional amendment pending in the House, cannot pass that body. It could not obtain a majority, to say nothing of the requisite two-thirds. The bill will probably be recommitted, and the reconstruction committee will lay their hands again. They do not seem to agree among themselves at present any better than with the majority of the House. The reasons given, however, for the rising opposition to the amendment bodes no good to the country. The objection is that it is too favorable to the South. It puts at rest forever the question of government interference with the suffrage subject in the States. It will leave no pretext for future agitation of negro suffrage.

The Radical members say that this Congress must not adjourn without establishing, by law, or constitutional amendment, the right of negro suffrage everywhere—in the States, in the Territories, and in this District. They will try to do it by law, for it is now apparent that it cannot be done by constitutional amendment. The opinion obtains with many in the House that the South would, with alacrity, accept the amendment proposed. Hardly with alacrity, however, but per force. Many members, embracing Republicans as well as Democrats, have come to the President's conclusion, that any further tinkering of the Constitution is inexpedient.

The House bill for the extension of the right of suffrage to the blacks of this District may be pronounced dead. The Senate, it is pretty well ascertained, will not pass that bill in its present form; and that, if they do pass it, it will be vetoed. Substitutes for the bill are to be offered in the Senate. If Mr. Morrill's bill to repeal the charter fails, it is intended to offer as a substitute the bill of Mr. Jenckes, which he proposed in the House, and which provides for a qualified surffrage. Probably the entire measure will fail.

We have information by letters from different parts of the South, written by men who had hoped and labored for the best, and who were known as optimists in politics, to the effect that the people are becoming discouraged and disaffected, in consequence of the disposition and temper manifested by Congress. IOTA.

WHY SOUTHERN SENATORS ARE IN WASHINGTON.

The Jackson [Miss.] Clarion, of the 11th instant, says:

"It is no longer a secret that our able Senators are remaining in Washington City at the earnest solicitation of the President, who is desirous of seeing the Southern States once more represented in the halls of Congress. Judge Sharkey would have returned home long since but for the assurance of the President that he would be admitted, and his earnest desire to have his assistance in his efforts to do justice to the Southern people."

TROUBLES OF THE TREASURY AT THE SOUTH.

The Secretary of the Treasury is still grievously perplexed in consequence of his inability to find persons at the South to act as agents who can take the Congressional oath. Otherwise than this the applicants for collectorships are first-rate men, well recommended for honesty, industry &c., but the oath stands in the way as a bar to their employment, and the Secretary is obliged to get along as best he can.

The President's Views in Regard to the proposed Amendment to the Constitution.

WASHINGTON, Jan 28

The following is the subject of the conversation which took place to day between the President and a distinguished Senator:

The President said he doubted the propriety at this time, of making any further amendments to the Constitution. One great amendment had already been made, by which slavery had forever been abolished within the limits of the United States, and a national guarantee thus given that that institution should never again exist on the land. Propositions to amend the Constitution were becoming as numerous as preambles and resolutions at town meetings, called to consider the most ordinary questions connected with the administration of local affairs. All this, in his opinion, had a tendency to diminish the dignity and prestige attached to the Constitution of the country, and to lessen the respect and confidence of the people in their great charter of freedom. If, however, amendments are to be made to the Constitution changing the basis of representation and taxation, (and he did not deem that at all necessary at the present time) he knew of none better than a simple proposition, embraced in a few lines, making, in each State, the number of qualified voters the basis of representation; and the value of property the basis of direct taxation. Such a proposition could be embraced in the following terms:

"Representation shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union according to the number of qualified voters in each State.

"Direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union according to the value of all taxable property in each State."

An amendment of this kind would, in his opinion, place the basis of representation and direct taxation upon correct principles. The qualified voters were for the most part men who were subject to draft and enlistment when it was necessary to repel invasion, suppress rebellion, and quell domestic violence and insurrection. They risk their lives, shed their blood, and peril their all, to uphold the Government, and give protection, security and value to property. It seemed but just that property should compensate for the benefits thus conferred by defraying the expenses incident to its protection and enjoyment.—Such an amendment, the President also suggested, would remove from Congress all issues in reference to the political equality of the races. It would leave the States to determine, absolutely, the qualifications of their own voters with regard to color, and thus the number of representatives to which they would be entitled in Congress would depend upon the number upon which they conferred the right of suffrage.

The President, in this connection, expressed the opinion that the agitation of the negro franchise question in the District of Columbia at this time was the mere entering wedge to the agitation of the question throughout the States, and was ill-timed, uncalled for, and calculated to do great harm. He believed that it would engender enmity, contention and strife between the two races, and lead to a war between them, which would result in great injury to both, and the certain extinction of the negro population. Precedence, he thought, should be given to more important and urgent matters, legislation upon which was essential for the restoration of the Union, the peace of the country, and prosperity of the people.

LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE old and well established

Ætna Company, of Hartford,

Offers superior inducements to all who wish to provide for family or friends.

All losses are promptly paid. No case of litigation has ever occurred with this Company. With assets of $2,300,000, it offers to receive one half of the premium in a note and half in cash, and, after the second year, to credit each customer with the dividends of the Company, which are now 50 per cent. With a small outlay, $500, or $10,000, or $21,000, may be secured to the family after their earthly providers are taken away. What father or husband would not feel thankful on his dying couch, that he had availed himself of every proper means to place those nearest and dearest to him, above the pinchings of want and a life of dependence upon friends or charity? 8 819 policies have been issued from the office ending Jan. 15 1866. The total income for the year 1865 was $1,683,339 57; total disbursements $527 805 24, leaving a balance to surplus fund of $1,155,244 33.

In Raleigh, a large number have liberally responded and promptly acted in this matter; yet many delay, and may wait until it is too late. A man in this city lately left his place of business for his evening meal, well and healthy, but never reached that home except as he was carried there to die. Had that man taken the advice of the Agent, he might have left $5000 to minister to the necessities of a sorrowing family. Delays are dangerous, procrastination destructive. But one says, "If I only had confidence in the Company that it would pay, I would insure." Well, it never has failed to pay, and to-day is more responsible than ever before. It is patronized by some of the most sagacious minds in the land—men competent to detect and expose any deception if it existed.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

Are the most perfect purgative which we are able to produce, or which we think has ever yet been made by any body. Their effects have abundantly established to the community how much they excel the ordinary medicines in use. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart a healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of everybody, but also formidable and dangerous diseases. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take, and, being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief, were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character, as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliabilities of our remedies, while others have sent us the assurance of their conviction that our Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of our afflicted, suffering fellow men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis our American Almanac, containing directions for the use, and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid inaction of the bowels and pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Diseases which require an evacuant medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations which they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S and take no other. The sick want the best and that is for them, and they should have it.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

PROSPECTUS

COSMOPOLITE.

ON THE FIRST OF JANUARY WE WILL commence the publication, in the City of Baltimore, of a monthly

Literary Magazine.

There is no publication of this character now issued South of New York City, and the closing of the war has left a large portion of the people of the country with no literary representative.

The COSMOPOLITE will be devoted to

Literature, Art, Reviews, Scientific Papers and General Reading, and we shall number among its contributors some of the first literary men of the South, with others from the North and from London and Paris.

All matter not original will be carefully selected from the newest and best of the English, French and German publications; and its Editors will spare no effort or expense to make it rank with the VERY FIRST magazines of the country.

As its name imports, we have established the COSMOPOLITE upon no sectional basis. We hope to make it the organ of general literature alone; and will be uninfluenced by any party or clique whatever.

It will be mailed to subscribers in any part of the country upon receipt of the following

Subscription:

Single Copies, for one year,	$4 00
Five Copies for one year,	18 00
Ten copies for one year,	33 00

☞ The COSMOPOLITE will be generally distributed among the Merchants and Planters of the South, and we will add, for their information, a few advertisements, at moderate rates.

☞ Liberal deductions will be made to booksellers and newsdealers.

☞ Newspapers publishing this prospectus and sending a marked copy to the undersigned, will receive a copy of the magazine. Address will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday, the 2nd of January next.

PROSPECTUS.

THE publication of the

The North Carolina Presbyterian

Confidently relying on the hearty support which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive, both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains or expense in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise, has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the Church, also, partake of the progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless in the working out of her own destiny?

To arouse the church to the importance and necessity of work; of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first and chiefest aim. In this we need assistance. We are not, alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; by contributions from the pews—by stores of thought and study; by zealous co-operation in a common cause, for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us the means and the opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all we hope for on earth.

Messrs B. H. Allen & Co., the well-known manufacturers of agricultural implements, say of it:

"We take pleasure in stating that we have sold E. F. Coe's Super Phosphate of Lime for four years.—It has given universal satisfaction to our customers. We most cheerfully endorse it as an article worthy of the confidence of the public, and the purchaser may rely upon securing an article honestly and carefully manufactured.

CARGO OF 275 TONS HAMPSHIRE COAL DAily expected from Baltimore.

This coal is bituminous, and perhaps the best coal known for steam purposes, whether for locomotives or steamboats. It is used almost exclusively by Northern railroad companies and the Cunard Steamers. It is also represented as the best blacksmith's coal in the country, and is very extensively used in iron works for forging, etc. It is soft and friable, the fine coal being as good for use as the lump.

The attention of railroad companies, iron works and machine shops, is particularly invited to the importance of a trial of this coal.

The undersigned having been appointed agent for the Hampshire and Baltimore Coal Company, will be prepared to furnish any quantity required, at a reasonable price.

The Test Oath.

The Wilmington Herald has a column of rigmarole on the "test oath," in which truth and logic, are outraged to no purpose. The gist of the article is, that the people of North Carolina who will not vote for those who can take the "test oath" to go to Congress, are disloyal. It admits that there are but few in the State who can take it, though a correspondent of that paper either seriously or facetiously contends, we don't know which, that there are many.

The Herald will admit, that loyalty to the government embraces not only the idea of obedience to and support of the government, but an observance and support of the Constitution. A man can not be loyal when he obeys the authority and laws of the government, on the one hand, and violates the constitution on the other. The people of North Carolina believe that the "test oath" is unconstitutional.—It is almost positively certain that the President and Mr. Seward, both so regard it, and it is now very generally understood in Washington, that the Supreme Court are of the same opinion. Now these facts very strongly justify the people of North Carolina in voting for men whom they can trust, who cannot take the oath.

But admit that the law though unconstitutional, must be enforced until it is repealed or declared void by the Supreme Court, it is a law which only binds the Congress, and in no sense binds the people of North Carolina to vote for men who can take the "test oath." The law certainly cannot affect or compel the exercise of the elective franchise of the people. If Congress choose to pass laws as a punishment or admonition to the South, barring us against the representation which the Constitution guarantees to the States, the wrong and the disloyalty is in the law-makers, and not in the people of the South, who simply exercise the right of choice given them in an election. Congress might just as well tell the people of North Carolina, if you will vote for A and B, we will receive them, but if you vote for D and C we will reject them. Would it be disloyal in the people to disregard such a requisition?

But the truth is, the article of the Herald is a piece of special pleading, which we understand to mean, that as the people of North Carolina can do no better, they had better elect to Congress the Yankee adventurers who have come into the State seeking a fortune, and who will do a great deal more for North Catolina than those of her citizens who have long been identified with her interests.

Again. This matter seems to be kept in a fog, unnecessarily. We admit that there is in the State a prejudice against men who say they can take the oath. Why is this? Because the honest people of the State know, that there are many who say they can take it, who persued a course during the war which satisfies them that they cannot take the oath conscientiously. Many of these people did as they did—talked as they talked and seemed to feel as they felt. The people say, we cannot take the oath, nor do we believe they can do it. Hence the refusal of the people to vote for such men, grows out of a doubt as to their personal integrity. But no such prejudice exists against those few gentlemen in the State, whom the people know can take the oath conscientiously. Not at all. If the people refuse to vote for that class of men to go to Congress, it is not because they can take the oath, but because of other objections to them.

But again. If the Congress had simply interdicted the admission of loyal men, and the Southern States were to persist in sending disloyal men to Congress, the case would be different, provided Congress and the South could agree upon the same test of loyalty. But in the case before us, where a man of his own free choice votes for this or that man to Congress who cannot take the "test oath," it neither proves his loyalty nor his disloyalty.

The Mob.

A city cotemporary is glad that Mr. Phillips of Orange, has the moral courage to defy the mob, and demand that the blacks shall testify before the Courts. We are glad that mob law or mobs do not belong to North Carolina, and that Legislators have always been protected by a sound public opinion in expressing there sentiments. The gentlemen who oppose it, are not leaders or exciters of mobs, but exercise the same right fearlessly in opposing it, that Mr. Phillips and others do in advocating it. We think it requires very little moral courage in any one, to express his honest convictions, when he feels that duty requires it. When duty compels us to express our opinion on any subject as an editor, we do it fearlessly; and we do not feel that we are entitled to any special credit for it. So, no doubt, Mr. Phillips feels.

The Code.

A cotemporary thinks that the Legislature ought to have had a joint committee of both Houses on the code. The House we suppose thought that the Commission was committee enough.—To have sent it to a joint committee would have taken away at least a fortnight of the time to discuss it. Hence, they went into committee of the whole.

The Duty of the South.

We observe a statement in the papers, intimating that the course of the majority in Congress, was exerting a very bad influence upon the temper of the Southern people, leading many to become indifferent to the restoration of the States and exciting greater hostility to the North.

This may be true to some extent. There are many Southern men whose tempers have not been chastened or rather utterly benumbed by the past—who still feel that the Southern people have not forfeited all claim to humanity, to justice and a common brotherhood. And it is natural that the inhuman, vindictive temper of the ultra radicals, should have a bad influence upon many. The Southern people are not lost to all sense of manhood and self-preservation—they are not devoid of the common feelings and the common frailties of mankind—the worm will turn up in hostility when trodden upon. This is human nature.

But these feelings do not overrule in the masses of our people, an earnest desire for peace and an early settlement of all matters of conflict with the government and the North. Our material condition is such as not to admit of longer conflict. We must have quiet—the barriers to business and employment must be removed, and it is the plain duty of the South to do all in its power—all that honor and right and justice demand of us to secure this end.

Let the South do her duty—fulfil her obligations—discharge all her pledges to the Government fully, and maintain her integrity and self-respect. She has a right to demand the fulfillment of the terms of the surrender made by the government, only upon the condition that she fulfil her part of the contract. What, if the ultra radicals in Congress are disposed to add to our burdens—to humiliate and degrade us the more? What if they are determined to fret and worry us? Let us meet fully the requisitions of the President. Congress has no right to ask more. The terms prescribed by President Johnson upon our surrender, cannot in justice and right be added to. The burdens imposed upon us, when fully borne and discharged cannot be increased. Let the South maintain this position and avoid fretfulness or peevish complaint. Let us do right, whatever the North may do, giving no just cause for complaint or further conflict. Thus doubly armed, truth and justice will cry out against oppression and wrong, and the South will be vindicated before God and man.

What's the News?

This is a very common inquiry—it is certainly a very innocent one—one that should occasion no irritation—and yet for some months it has been a very perplexing and aggravating one. What is the President doing? He is doing very well. He has a bad case to manage but he is doing his best. He holds his foot down where he puts it, and we judge upon the whole, he is in statu quo. What is the Congress doing? Ah! there's the rub. It breakfasts on the negro—dines on the negro—sups on the negro, and sleeps on the negro. It has done but little yet, though kept growling like a hyena, as if ready to pounce upon its prey—but it is in statu quo. What is the Legislature doing?—Why, a good deal. It has appointed about 2500 magistrates, about one half of whom would make better farmers. It has passed a number of private and public bills, but people say, they are of no public interest; and now it has commenced on the negro, and when it will get through, no prophet can tell. What's the news? Nothing in particular.

CORPORATION PROCEEDINGS.—The proceedings of the last meeting of the City Commissioners were handed in at too late an hour for this issue.

We see, from them, that the salary of the Mayor has been fixed at $1000; Clerk $250; Treasurer $250; Chief Constable 60 per month; Assistant Constable $50, and Watchmen $1.50 per night.

An ordinance has been adopted, providing that all hogs and goats found running at large, after the 15th. inst., shall be impounded, and a tax of $1 imposed upon every such animal thus taken up.

It is estimated that the expenses of the municipal government for the current year will be $30,460.

IN HIS SEAT.—We were glad to see Charles Latham, Esq., Senator from Washington and Martin, in his seat on yesterday. Mr. L. has been kept at home with a severely afflicted family.

A CARD

Louisburg Female College

I have learned from several sources, that a report is extensively circulated, that the Louisburg Female College is not comfortably warmed. I pronounce the report not true. The building is very comfortable, being heated by fire places and Franklin stoves.

I was connected with the Greensboro Female College, for ten years previous to its destruction by fire, and can unhesitatingly affirm that the Louisburg Female College is equally as well warmed as that ever was, and much better ventilated.

T. M. JONES, Pres't.

BALTIMORE CONFERENCE EXPECTED TO JOIN THE SOUTHERN METHODIST BODY.—The preachers who constituted a majority of the Baltimore Annual Conference at its session in Staunton, Va., in March, 1861, and who claim to be the Baltimore Annual Conference, advertise a meeting at Alexandria, on the 17th day of February next. As the time approaches, some interest is experienced in their deliberations, and it is surmised by some that they will unite themselves with the Methodist Church South.

The Baltimore Annual Conference, known and recognized as such here, will meet in Baltimore on the last day of February, Rev. Bishop Scott presiding.—Washington Chronicle.

The banking house and lot of the Bank of North Carolina, in Wilmington, will be sold at auction on the premises on Thursday, the 15th of February, 1866.

SPECIAL ORDER.

At noon, the House, pursuant to order, resolved itself into Committee of the whole, Mr. Rayner in the Chair, and proceeded with the consideration of the bill concerning Negroes, Indians and persons of color, or of mixed blood.

The question recurring on the motion of Mr. McNair to strike out the 11th section, Mr Jenkins of Warren, addressed the committee in support of the motion.

Mr. Jenkins took the position that this was a white man's government, and characterized as erroneous the intimation thrown out in the report of the Commission, that the Supreme Court of this State had decided that free negroes are citizens. He undertook to say that no such decision had ever been made. Adverting to the unfriendly legislation of Indiana and other Northern States against persons of color, he asked, if in those States where they were sparsely scattered and had enjoyed liberal educational advantages, they were not allowed to testify, were we prepared to accord that right to an illiterate race—assured to bondage and intoxicated by the novelty of freedom. If the educated negro is deemed by those who profess to be his peculiar friends an incompetent witness, how much stronger the reason that they should not be permitted to testify in North Carolina in all cases in which they are interested. In his opinion, if negroes be deemed fit to testify when interested, it would be better to admit their evidence in cases other than those to which they are parties. This measure was the worst that could be devised for the protection of freedmen, and the more intelligent among them were least desirous that this franchise be granted them. If the right to testify be granted the right of suffrage, the right to sit on juries and to fill offices would be successively demanded.

[Mr. J. here cited remarks recently made by President Johnson deprecating the agitation of the question of negro suffrage in the District of Columbia, and expressing the belief that such agitation would prove the entering wedge to the agitation of that question throughout the States.]

In reply to the argument of Mr. Phillips — that, he said, that had not been without its effect upon the committee, that the refusal, to the negro, of the right to testify, would entail upon us a continuance of the Freedmen's Bureau in our midst, he asked, what reason was there to believe that this concession would free us from that tribunal? Florida, Alabama, and other States had yielded this point but no such result had followed.

Mr Phillips replied at length. He said that Mr. Jenkins had cited but one instance out of twenty three free States, in which the right to testify has been refused to the negro. The State of Indiana had never been regarded in North Carolina as a safe exemplar in matters of legislation, and her constitution expressly prohibited the emigration of free persons of color into her borders. If North Carolina denied to this population the right to testify, then North Carolina and Indiana would stand alone in that regard. The right to testify was not a political right. It had been styled a natural right. He was not prepared to say whether it was or not, but it seemed to him to have many of the essential elements of a natural right. It would be better to base legislation, with regard to the negro upon the supposition that he is a fellow-being, and actuated to some extent by the same feelings which actuate us. The theories prevalent in the South, in relation to the negro, had been radically wrong in many respects, and had brought us to grief. The right of petition—the right to be heard—the right of telling one's grievance in one's own way, is what is asked. It would remove a natural cause of dissatisfaction, if the privilege be accorded. The gentleman from Warren cited the remarks of President Johnson—remarks based exclusively on the question of free negro suffrage in the District of Columbia—as proving the impolicy of granting to negroes the right of testifying. He had very adroitly by the use of the comprehensive phrase "and so forth," created the impression that the President, while speaking only of the impolicy of extending the elective franchise to negro residents of the District, was thinking also of the question of admitting them as witnesses in courts of justice.

Mr. P proceeded to argue, that considerable progress had already been made in this State towards reconstruction, as evidenced by the existence of a civil Governor and a civil Legislature. He contended that there was no reason to believe that this concession would not further the progress of restoration, while there were many considerations which impelled the conclusion that its refusal, would retard restoration and result in incalculable injury.

In conclusion Mr Phillips, with much earnestness and eloquence enforced his conviction that this grant of the right to testify, was demanded by the natural sense of justice of the enlightened Christian world, that this consideration, aside from motives of policy, should induce a prompt and willing concession of a right it were cruel and unjust to deny.

At the close of Mr. Phillips, remarks, on motion of Mr. Hoke, the Committee rose, reported progress, and obtained leave to sit again at noon to-morrow.

A message was received from His Excellency the Governor, transmitting a memorial from the Trustees of the University, which was sent to the Senate, with a proposition to print and refer to the Committee on Finance.

The House then adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

For the Sentinel

Mr. Editor:—I learn from your paper that a bill has passed the House of Commons, prohibiting the distillation of Whiskey out of Grain. The motive which prompted the introduction of such a bill was, no doubt, to ameliorate the condition of the poor of our State by making corn sell cheap, so as to enable them to buy it.

The supporters of the bill above alluded to were governed by the best of feelings no doubt. But have they not done more harm than good? Men often, by mistaken judgment, and misguided zeal in endeavouring to do good, accomplishes much, very much mischief, which may entail a train of evils, that will require the best efforts of a whole generation, of the wisest and best men to correct and work out. Let us look at this matter rightly, for it requires the deepest consideration; and we should weigh the subject well, for it involves a great and fundamental principle. A principle that, if ignored will sap the foundation of our Government of boasted Liberty. Let me ask, what have fanaticism and ill-guided zeal, to do good, done for our country? Alas, alas, there are too many evidences all around us, that tell the mournful tale of a ruined country.

I have always been opposed to setting dangerous precedents, and that this bill contains principles that are unjust, no one can deny; for I do contend, that it is unjust to legislate a dollar out of the pocket of A. to put into the pocket of B. without a fair remuneration, and this is the tendency and effect of this bill, is too clear to admit of doubt. Now, when we are about starting on again to adopt a new code of laws, let us be cautious how we act, and not pass or enact any law that will oppress one class of our people to benefit another, for it engenders at once a bad feeling amongst our people, and causes a dislike to spring up as to the ability or fairness in Legislation.

Let us see how this bill will operate and what its effect will be. That the eastern portion of North Carolina is a bare grain growing section, is well known; and that few, if any distilleries are located there we also know. Then what becomes of all the surplus grain of that section? why it seeks and finds a Northern market, and comes back to us in whiskey, doctored up with all sorts of drugs, that is poisoning our people. Ten gallons of this sort of whiskey is made from one bushel of corn. This whiskey is sold to our people for four and five dollars per gallon. Thus you see forty or fifty dollars goes into the hands of Northern men, made from one bushel of corn and our State derives little if any revenue from its distillation. Thus you see where our money goes, never to come back. This bill was supported mostly by Eastern men, who find ready sale for their corn in a Northern market. Now how is it with the Western people of our State, where cotton nor tobacco can be raised to any extent, and where corn and wheat are the staple crop, both of which will not bear transportation, and where whiskey distilleries have been invented to still up the surplus grain, thereby converting it into an article which will bear transportation and bring a little money into that section, to enable them to pay their liabilities, in the way of taxes, &c. This is the only way by which those people can make money. It is a well known fact that five bushels of corn made into whiskey, the swill or slops of which, will produce as much pork as if you had fed four bushels of that corn to raise the same amount of pork, by which only one fifth of the corn is lost in whiskey, and the balance saved in meat. We want meat as well as bread. I have known poor people that had more hogs than they could feed. With what corn they had raised, that would carry their hogs to distilleries, and have them raised and fattened, on half shares, and save their corn to eat, thus they will have meat and bread enough for their family. I look upon this bill, if carried into effect, as being ruinous to Western North Carolina, and sectional in its operation. If there be so much suffering as to render necessary, the passage of such an unjust measure as this bill surely is, ha! we not better resort to some other mode of relief, by appointing committees to look into those extreme cases and provide for them, by getting corn now where it can be had in any quantity, at Newbern, for three dollars per barrel, and make an equal distribution of it? This is the better way to meet distress, and which will not infringe upon any ones rights, and tax the whisky makers to help pay it.

JUSTICE.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—A desirable house and lot on Morgan Street is offered for rent.

Messrs. McRay & Co., of Wilmington, announce a heavy lot of pure guano.

Frazer's Hotel is opened at Trinity College for the accommodation of the public.

Towles is on hand again with attractive auction sales.

The Fair at the Capitol will be opened again to-night. Many nice things to see, besides many good things for the inner man.

PERSONAL.—Judge Heath, now of Memphis, Gen. Clingman, John H. Haughton, Esq., now of Newbern, Gov. Swain, Gov. Graham and others have recently been in the city or are still here on business.

STEALING.—We believe the theives are not all dead yet. We had hoped they were, but we observe they are still busy. One or more of them has tolled off or stolen a fine pig of ours—an only pig—within the last few days.

Mrs. Isham Ball, of Warren County, was arrested, on yesterday, charged with the killing of "Jim Thomas" free man of color. The alleged homicide occurred some three weeks ago, at the house of Mrs. Ball. It is said that ample testimony will be adduced to prove the killing justifiable,—Jim being killed, while making an assault on Mrs. Ball, in her own house.

Mrs. Ball is in confinement in this city, to answer the charge. Geo. Badger Harris, of Granville County, is counsel for the accused.

A Bill for the more complete Reorganization of the State Government and for other purposes.

[This bill introduced by Mr. McAden, of Allamance, has become a law.]

WHEREAS doubts are entertained whether or not the powers of all officers and agents appointed by the late Provisional Government ceased with the discontinuance of said government, and as said officers and agents may have done many official acts since their powers may be held to have ceased, for the removal of such doubts and for the purpose of validating the acts of such officers and agents, and for the further purpose of more thoroughly reorganizing the civil government of the State:

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That the acts which may have been done by any of the municipal officers of towns or by any other officers and agents of the late Provisional Government be held as valid as they would have been had the powers of such officers and agents been continued in unquestionable force, until the appointment and qualification of successors.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, Where any election shall have been held in any of the incorporated towns for the election of municipal officers to fill the vacancies occasioned by the discontinuance of the Provisional Government whether such election was held on the day and in the manner prescribed in the charter and corporate laws of the town or not, such elections are hereby invested with all the powers, rights and privileges which would have been conferred upon them, had they been elected in strict conformity with the charter and corporate laws of such town.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted. That the Clerks of the County and Superior Courts and Sheriffs and Registers appointed under the Provisional Government are hereby continued in office until their successors shall be qualified.

SEC 4. Be it further enacted, That as soon as this General Assembly shall have appointed Justices of the Peace for the several Counties, it will be the duty of the Governor to issue commissions accordingly, to Clerks of the County Courts in each county, together with a copy of this act, for each of said Justices, commanding him to notify said Justices of the Peace to assemble at the Court House of their respective counties, on a day to be designated by said Sheriffs, not more than ten days from the day when such order shall be delivered to such Sheriff.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted That upon the assembling of said Justices of the Peace and their qualification by the Clerk of the County Court, or by any other person authorized by law to administer oaths, they may at once organize a special term of the County Court or appoint some other early day for the holding of a special term of said Court, at which term the Court and Sheriff shall have power to pass upon the returns of election held on the 9th of November last for Clerks and Sheriffs, and declare the result of the same, receive the bonds from the officers found to be elected, and to do all other things, not requiring the intervention of a jury which a County Court may do at any regular term thereof.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That any two magistrates of a county are hereby authorized to qualify the person elected Superior Court Clerk for their county, Nov. 9, 1865, according to sec. 7, chap. 19, revised code, in like manner as if they had been commissioned so to do by a Judge.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That in the incorporated towns where elections, regular or irregular, for corporate officers may, and they are hereby required forthwith to appoint an early day for such election, upon five day's notice in the newspapers of such town, or by public advertisement in such town where there is no newspaper published therein, and such election shall be conducted as near as may be in conformity with the charter and corporate laws of the towns, and the municipal officers who shall be elected at such elections, upon being qualified shall forthwith enter upon the discharge of their duties, as though they had been duly elected at the time and according to the rules prescribed in the charter and corporate laws of the town, and they shall hold their offices until their successors shall have been elected and qualified at the next regular election in said town. Provided this act shall not apply to towns in which there has been, or shall be, special legislation at this session of the General Assembly. And provided further, that nothing contained in this act shall be so construed as to prevent the holding of the regular terms of the Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, and the qualification of officers as now regulated by law.

SEC. 8 Be it further enacted, That this act be in force immediately after its ratification.

It has been decided that a woman who is regularly ordained and settled as minister in Massachusetts can legally unite a couple in marriage.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.

SENATE.—Mr. Fessenden gave notice that he would, on Monday, ask to take up the Constitutional amendment passed on yesterday by the House, and would endeavor to keep it before the body until adopted. It was desirable to get the amendment before the State Legislatures now in session at the earliest moment.

Mr. Howard made a speech on his motion, for the trial of Davis and Clay. He offered an amendment including all others who were in concert with them.

HOUSE.—The House was engaged in discussing the bill enlarging the powers of the Freedman's Bureau.

From Central and South America.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.

Panama dates to the 22nd have been received. No local news. Storms have destroyed almost the entire cotton crop there.

The Costa Rica coffee crop being gathered brings higher prices than usual.

The Peruvian Dictator is pushing reforms in all the Districts. He stated to the Chilian Ambassador that Peru considered the Chilian conflict with Spain essentially a Peruviad question.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.

The House Judiciary committee has reported adversely on all plans or bills relating to the Stay Laws.

Governor Hamilton has appointed Mr. Alexander Attorney General of Texas.

A National Bank, with a capital of one million dollars, will be opened in Washington shortly.

Steamship Africa arrived in New York, with advices to the 21st. from Liverpool.

The Paris Press asserts, that Napoleon has sent a messenger to Mexico to make arrangements for the speedy withdrawal of the French troops.

Active search is being made in Ireland for Stevens.

The London Observer says that Gladstone will dispose of the surplus revenue, by removing a number of small articles from the tariff, and by a modification of sugar duties.

The Globe says it is doubtful whether the interest on the Mexican loan will be paid; the funds in Europe being exhausted, it is impossible to raise a new loan.

The Freedmen and the Cotton Crop.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 26.—The New Orleans Price Current reviews the reports from the different Southern States on the labor question, and shows the urgent necessity of the Freedmen's Bureau throughout the South taking energetic measures to make the freedmen keep their contracts for work, if it is desired to raise even a moderate crop of cotton.

The Price Current says that the financial arrangements of the government will be seriously affected should the crop be cut short by the failure of the Freedmen's Bureau to protect the great Agricultural interests of the South this year through the proper enforcement of the labor contracts. Should the cotton supply be small, a material rise in the price of the staple will be the result, and will press severely on the Northern manufacturing districts, and leave so small a quantity for export as to diminish the supply of foreign exchange, cause a consequent demand for gold, increase our foreign indebtedness, and materially obstruct the Federal Treasury operations.

Warlike.

Events transpiring at New Orleans are portentous of war. The Navy Department is engaged in that city in refitting and preparing for active service, eleven iron-clads. These will soon be completed. It is noised about that vessels bound for the Rio Grande are ordered to touch at Galveston, in order to convey troops to the confines of Mexico. Is war with Mexico and France inevitable? Might it not be postponed till the South has been reinvigorated? Shall Louis Napoleon be encouraged by Radicalism to land an army on the Southern coast with the hope of recruiting disaffected States? Impoverished as are these States, must they become scenes of other bloody conflicts? Men with families, having defined purposes in life, unlike reckless adventurers, would evade, if possible, the necessity for war. We believe that the President seeks the maintenance of peace; but the violence of internal dissentions; secessionism that belayitself; these facts, may render a foreign war desirable.

All these hostile demonstrations may be designed to advise Napoleon of the necessity for the withdrawal of French troops from Mexico.—Memphis Bulletin.

EMIGRATION TO MEXICO.—It is stated in the Georgia papers, that a colony is being organized at Columbus, in that State, to go to Mexico. Judge William D. Swan, lately of Tennessee, and ex-member of the Confederate Congress from the Knoxville district, is at the head of it.

THE PRESIDENT AND CONGRESS.—It is stated that letters from influential conservatives in the New England States are pouring into Washington, urging their Senators and Representatives to avoid a rupture with the Executive, and to abide, as far as possible, by the policy he has seen fit to mark out for the restoration of the Union.

WILKES' MILLS.—We are gratified to learn that this large establishment is now undergoing a change, and instead of, as in times of old, grinding wheat, it is to be supplied with splendid new machinery, to be employed in the manufacturing of the far-famed Rock Island fabrics.—Charlotte Times.

Order from General Sickles Concerning Freedman.—General Sickles, commanding the department of South Carolina, has prescribed regulations for the government of all concerned. He decides that all laws shall be applicable alike to all the inhabitants; no person should be held incompetent to sue, make complaint or to testify because of color or caste. The General directs that to secure the same equal justice and personal liberty to the freedmen as to other inhabitants, no penalties or punishments different from those to which all persons are amenable shall be imposed on freed people; and all crimes and offenses which are prohibited under existing laws, shall be understood as prohibited in the case of freedmen.

CIRCULAR.

TO THE PUBLIC:

The undersigned has now ready for the press a volume, the result of the lucubrations of many years, entitled a "Short Treatise on Chronology in General, and especially on Classical Chronology." The work is not intended to be a chronological chart, nor yet a compilation of dates and synchronistic tables. The author's aim has been to prepare a "Horn Book" of Chronology, containing the leading principles, laws and facts of that science.

The FIRST part treats of measuring time and adjusting its various divisions; the SECOND of fixing dates of historical events and arranging them in order; and the THIRD, of miscellaneous matters important to the chronologist.

UNDER THE FIRST DIVISION are discussed the day, the week, the month, the year and certain cycles used in computing the civil calendar and preparing the Almanac; the origin, history, nature character, and various sub-divisions of each, especially among the ancients.

UNDER THE SECOND DIVISION the methods of ascertaining the dates or the time when they occurred, the actual dates of some important eras whose epochs as disputed; the most important epochs and eras which have been employed at different times and by different nations, including those which are still in use; and the actual dates of the most prominent events in classical chronology.

UNDER THE THIRD AND LAST DIVISION are considered the epochs and eras of less importance; a sketch of the chronology of India and of China; the principles of the art of mnemotechny as applied to dates, and the different systems of that art which have been propounded.

The author believes that a work successfully executed upon this plan, though it may not contain very much that is new, cannot but be useful and valuable, not only to the reading public, but also to the youth of our country, in the acquisition of classical and historical learning; and HISTORY will be THE STUDY of this age; it must always be the study of thoughtful men in times of revolution and great political changes, such as our country is at present undergoing.

The contributions of North Carolina, and of the Southern States of the Union generally, to American literature have heretofore been few, and for the most part, worthless. A few works of fiction and some fugitive poems include our past efforts; and with the excellent Latin Grammar and the edition of Cæsar's Commentaries, prepared for the press by Col. Buchan—works the very best of their character which have ever fallen under our observation, and which, under more favorable circumstances, will yet win for their author that high reputation in his profession which he merits—our contributions to USEFUL LITERATURE are of the very humblest character. Under such circumstances this book is, with some confidence, presented for public patronage.

The author proposes to publish by subscription. The cost of publication will be fifteen hundred dollars, or more. The book contains about two hundred and fifty 12 mo. pages. It will be brought out in the best style of one of our best American publishers, as to type, paper and binding. The cost of one copies delivered will be $2 50.

Persons desiring to subscribe can communicate with the undersigned at Raleigh, but subscriptions will be opened at various places of business in Raleigh and other towns in the State. Subscriptions will be required in cash as essential to the success of the enterprise. Editors who will give this Circular a few insertions and forward a copy of their papers containing it to the author, will be furnished with a copy of the book.

The volume will be placed in the hands of the publisher as soon as the author's success is at all assured and will be issued to subscribers a few weeks thereafter.

Desirable Farm for Sale.

THE PLANTATION SITUATED ABOUT TWO and a half miles from the village of Magnolia on the Wilmington and Weldon R. R., between that place and Kenansville, and known as "Barbacue," is offered for sale. The tract contains 360 acres, 100 of which are cleared and have been under cultivation, producing excellent Corn, Wheat, potatoes, &c. A portion of the land is also well adapted to the culture of cotton. An inexhaustible bed of Marl, a large spring of as good water as can be found in the State, and a never failing stream, running through the center of the cleared land, are among the attractions of the place.

The timbered portion of the land being nearest the Rail Road, and the entire place being easy of access to a first rate market, make it a highly desirable location for growing produce, raising stock and selling timber. Any one having the cash, can procure a bargain by applying immediately to
